Join IPJC’s Youth Action Team Internship and participate in a formational process focused on developing community organizing skills and understanding social justice issues, approached from the lens of Catholic Social Teaching. Then work in collaboration to develop an initiative to address a social justice issue.